MURRAY, HURD & HUGHTON,
No. 65 Broadway, N. Y.

THE MARKET ASSISTANT contains a brief description of every article of Human Food sold in the Public Markets of the Cities of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and Brooklyn, including Fish, Game, Fowl, Eggs, Vegetables, Fruits, &c., and also Accidents and Anecdotes. By Thomas F. D. Voe. Author of "The Market Book," &c. With numerous explanatory Illustrations. 1 vol. 8vo, cloth. Price $1.00. The book which came under my notice, it gives evidence of a remarkable fund of knowledge on the part of the author, in natural history as well as in the odd and curious of the market. The author is a man of great wit, and his book is in the market where he daily exhibits his wares and steaks. He is proud of his book, too, and the book will contain his portrait, exhibiting him in market costume.

THE MOST EXCITING AND INTERESTING BOOK OF THE DAY. GEN. L. C. BAKER'S HISTORY OF THE SECRET SERVICE AGENTS WANTED IN every city, town, county and State of the Union to carry out this work. This history was announced in the Tribune, and its publication was delayed, considered and unbridged under the supervision of GEN. BAKER. It contains a full and official account of the important missions of the secret service agents, their daring enterprises and thrilling adventures. For years past, the book has been in the market where he daily exhibits his portraits and steaks. He is proud of his book, too, and the book will contain his portrait, exhibiting him in market costume.
